(Special Cable Despatch to The Evening World.) WEI-HAI-WEI, Feb. 24.—The Japanese warships which have been blockading Port Arthur madea determined attack to-day in an attempt to land. The fleet was repulsed by a terrific hail of projectiles from the forts and the Russian battle-ships in the harbor, under which four of the Mikado's warships and two transports were sunk. The report that has been received here says that the vessels destroyed were battle-ships. It is believed that Japan's fleet ran under range of the great guns on the forts. Two of these forts are the most powerfully equipped in the world, carrying batteries of thirteen-inch rifles with a range of seven miles.

It has been known that the Japanese were making elaborate preparations to reduce the forts of Port Arthur
